RE: MURs 4935 and 5057
Boris Motovich

Dear Mr. Stangler:

On November 27, 2001, the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") found that there is probable cause to believe that your client, Boris Motovich, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act") and 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(b)(1) by making an excessive contribution to Dear for Congress, Inc.

The Commission has a duty to attempt to correct such violations for a period of at least 30 days and no more than 90 days by informal methods of conference, conciliation, and persuasion, and by entering into a conciliation agreement with a respondent. Enclosed is a conciliation agreement that the Commission has approved in settlement of this matter. If Mr. Motovich agrees with the provisions of the enclosed agreement, please have him sign and return it, along with the civil penalty, to the Commission within ten days. Please have him make the check for the civil penalty payable to the Federal Election Commission. Upon receipt, I will recommend that the Commission accept the agreement. If after 30 days we are unable to reach conciliate this matter, the Commission may institute a civil suit in United States District Court and seek payment of a civil penalty.

If you have any questions or suggestions for changes to the enclosed conciliation agreement, or if you wish to arrange a meeting in connection with a mutually satisfactory conciliation agreement, please contact Danita C. Lee, the attorney assigned to this matter at (202) 694-1650.

Sincerely,

Lawrence H. Norton
